SURVEY

► CYPSC Survey for Domestic Sexual Gender Based Violence Training for Organisations

Wexford CYPSC (Children & Young People's Services Committee) is a county-wide committee that includes representatives of all the main statutory, community and voluntary agencies and organisations working on behalf of children and young people (aged 0-24 years) in County Wexford. It is chaired by Tusla.

One of the key tasks of the Committee is to oversee actions that support children and young people in County Wexford to be safe and protected from harm. As part of that work, there is a task group looking at supports when children or young people have been exposed to domestic, sexual or gender-based violence.

This year, the committee is seeking input from a wide range of community groups to raise awareness of these issues and ensure community-based groups know how to support children, young people, and families affected by domestic abuse.

We want to understand:

- What would help raise awareness of these issues?
- Whether community groups have enough information to support children, young people and families who may be affected.

To help with this, we have created a short survey with 7 questions. The survey is simply to help us understand what information adults may need if they come across these situations. We would really appreciate you taking a few minutes to complete the survey as best you can and submit by 26th June.

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/YFH8593>

If a child or young person is affected by any of these issues, support is available, and contact details are provided below:

An Garda Síochána: (053) 916 5200

Tusla: (053) 9198134

Wexford Women's Refuge: 1800 220 444

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

► “Girls Get Active” invitation for Expressions of Interest

Wexford CYPSC together with Gorey Youth Needs Group and Wexford Sports Active, Local Sports Partnership are offering groups the opportunity to participate in the “Girls Get Active” programme in Autumn 2026. This programme is funded through the Healthy Ireland Fund.

This programme is targeted at girls aged 12-16 years. It will be rolled out in Autumn, aiming to start during the month of September 2026. Details of the programme are available in the Expression of Interest form which is available here. This form includes information on eligibility criteria etc.

Groups who are interested in participating should submit P.3 and P.4 of the EoI form together with the Costings Form.

Submission Date : Expression of Interest forms must be returned to Nicola.collins@wexfordcoco.ie by Friday 3rd of July by 5pm. Late submissions will not be accepted.

HEALTH

► Infant Mental Health Awareness Week 8th to the 14th June 2026; This Year's Theme is 'Attunement'

Drop Everything and Read Child Health Public Health

Summer 2026 Edition: Infant Mental Health

Infant mental health awareness week is celebrated 8-14 June 2026, and provides an opportunity to discuss the importance of supporting babies' mental health and wellbeing. The theme for this year's awareness week is "attunement". Attunement is the ability to tune in and connect with others on an emotional level. This is important for everyone, but particularly for babies and their parents or carers. Through attuned interactions, babies feel safe, secure, and loved.

Attunement, as it applies to infant mental health, is the caregiver's capacity to notice, accurately interpret and respond contingently to an infant's cues. It is a central mechanism through which infant mental health develops. Through repeated attuned interactions, infants learn to regulate their emotions and physiology with the support of another person. Over time, these experiences become internalised as the infant's own capacity for self-regulation, resilience, and secure attachment.

Importantly, attunement does not require perfection. Developmental research consistently shows that "good enough" caregiving, characterised by frequent repair following misattunement, is sufficient to support healthy development.

To promote infant mental health and attunement in parents and caregivers:
Healthcare professionals play a critical role in promoting infant mental health and attunement. Key evidence-based principles include:

- Make attunement visible: Help parents notice infant cues, pauses, and regulatory signals. Naming these moments supports parental confidence and learning.
- Normalise misattunement and repair: Reassure parents that misunderstanding their baby is expected. Emphasise that reconnecting and repairing is what supports development—not constant responsiveness.
- Prioritise caregiver wellbeing: Caregiver stress, depression, and trauma directly impair attunement. Supporting parental mental health is a core infant mental health intervention, not an adjunct.
- Adopt a relational stance: Warm, reflective, non-judgemental interactions with parents ("parallel process") enhance parents' capacity to attune to their infants.
- Consider context, not just behaviour: Difficulties in attunement should be understood within social, cultural, and economic contexts rather than framed as parenting deficits.
- Promote strengths and protective factors: Highlight moments of successful connection. Strength-based feedback supports sustained change more effectively than corrective advice alone.

Scan the QR code to access a series of short (2–3 minute) infant mental health videos featuring HSE expert advice on YouTube to support parents and guardians of children aged 0–3 years. The videos focus on practical, everyday topics such as understanding baby cues, soothing and settling, bonding, play, emotional regulation, communication, and supporting transitions like sleep and childcare. You can also direct parents and caregivers to the MyChild.ie website, and relevant sections of the My Child books.

Learn more about Infant Mental Health:
The following modules are available on HSeLanD:

- Promoting infant mental health
- Observing infant social and emotional development
- Using an infant mental health informed approach in practice

A half day blended training programme for PHNs and CMDs, designed to bridge the gap between theory and practice, is being rolled out across the regions. Participants will complete the HSeLanD modules in advance, followed by a face-to-face interactive session that reinforces infant mental health principles.

LITERACY

► Family Literacy Calendar Resource

We are delighted to share our third interactive calendar resource for 2026, this time focusing on family literacy.

Throughout June, you can click on a new item to explore information, resources, and simple tips to support family literacy.

The calendar shows how families, parents, carers, educators, and communities can create family learning spaces that support literacy. Each daily item is free to view and use.

To listen to our introduction to family literacy, click on day 1.

A Microsoft Word version of the calendar, which may be more suitable for assistive technology, is available at this link.

The calendar was developed by Adult Literacy for Life and includes links to a wide range of resources, including materials from our literacy partner organisations.

GOOD CAUSE

As always, our participants are coming together to support a very worthy cause. Our Quilting Group is creating a beautiful quilt to be raffled in aid of Eimear Byrne. The group has asked for support in selling raffle tickets and sharing this fundraiser far and wide to help raise as much as possible for Eimear. Eimear is a 30-year-old teacher from Arklow who is living with a rare condition. She urgently needs surgery in America, with the total cost amounting to €600,000. Communities across Arklow, Gorey, and the surrounding areas have been working tirelessly through fundraising events and donations to help make this happen. We are delighted to join these community efforts in supporting Eimear and helping to raise the necessary funds. Raffle tickets are €10 per strip and are available from Gorey Family Resource Centre. Please support if you can, and share with family and friends. Every contribution makes a difference.

WHAT IS GOING ON IN THE CENTRE

MAY REFLECTIONS

Another wonderful coffee morning was held to raise awareness of the Hello, How Are You? campaign and the Go Purple campaign. Thank you to everyone who joined us and contributed, including our Friday Women's Group, Colette, our local Community Guard, her colleagues, as well as Leoni from Wexford Women's Refuge.

Our Chair Yoga and Tai Chi classes have now finished, and everyone agrees they were a great success.

RAINBOWS PEER SUPPORT GROUP (SEPT 2026)

Supporting children and young people after bereavement, parental separation, or divorce.

Not every child feels ready to talk – and that's okay. Simply being part of a supportive group, listening to others, and knowing they are not alone can make a huge difference.
